

Sao Miguel Backup Plan

Instead of going to Lagoa de Fogo, we instead headed to Caloura for a seaside lunch at Bar Caloura, which was fantastic. On the drive down to Bar Caloura, about 200 meters before the restaurant, you can't miss the beautiful Caloura Convent with its traditional azulejo (blue and white Portuguese tiles) facade.

Afterward, we headed towards Praia Pequena de Água d'Alto, stopping at Miradouro do Pisão for a lovely viewpoint over Caloura on the way.

At this point, you could go back to Ponta Delgada to spend the afternoon exploring the town, but since you are pretty close to Lagoa de Congro you could do that instead.

Be sure to stop at Our Lady of Peace Chapel in Vila Franca on the way if you do!
